Ucluelet
Affordable
Housing
Committee

Background:

The UAHC was formed in September 2007, with the mandate to represent community interests in the development of affordable housing standards and regulations, and recommend to Council an appropriate housing authority structure and governance model. Since then, they have made progressive steps in clarifying what affordable housing means, the criteria for selecting qualified applicants, and the required policies related to price setting and construction standards for the units.

Time Commitment

The UAHC meets every Bi-monthly on the last Monday evening of the month. The meetings will run from 7pm to 9pm. This is a volunteer position and the UAHC understands that there will be times when you will not be able to attend.
